

DongXu 3 Axle 60 Tons Fence Semi Trailer

The 3 Axle 60 Tons Fence Semi Trailer is designed for transporting various goods, such as household items, telecommunications materials, and small equipment.

The DongXu 3 Axle 60 Tons Fence Semi Trailer features a simple and practical design that is easy to disassemble, helping users reduce investment costs and increase profitability. Its frame is constructed with longitudinal beams and cross beams welded into a space frame structure, ensuring balanced strength, rigidity, and toughness with a strong load-bearing capacity and no permanent deformation. Additionally, the trailer is equipped with a new suspension system that offers high strength and excellent impact resistance.

Founded in 2008, DongXu Vehicle has built extensive expertise by integrating advanced technologies from around the world. We offer customized solutions tailored to your needs, as well as OEM/ODM services.
